Assistance from Legacy

Legacy Widows with an allocated Legatee are encouraged to make contact with their Legatee for advice or assistance.

If you are unable to contact your Legatee, or if you do not have an allocated Legatee, you can contact the Duty Legatee at Legacy House between the hours of 10am and 1pm Monday to Friday.

Another opportunity to discuss any matters with a Legatee is at your monthly Widows' Club or Social Group meeting – a Liaison Legatee is usually in attendance at these meetings.

THE LEGACY HOUR ON AIR

Monday, March 5 at 3:00pm will see the first "Legacy Hour Radio Show" go to air.

We encourage everyone, Widows, Legatees, Youth and Staff to tune in to 101.5 FM to listen in and hear history in the making. The people who put the program together, and the people announcing on air are all Legacy Widows. Since January two teams of Widows (8 in all) have been undergoing training in radio production and program making, and throughout 2012 they will be dedicating a lot of time to making sure that the weekly Legacy Hour radio show goes to air every Monday at 3:00pm.

The program will feature lots of music as well as reminiscences from Legacy Widows, information about what's happening at Legacy, as well as useful information on services to help you at home or in the community. We're sure it will be entertaining, helpful and enjoyable to listen to. You'll probably hear voices and stories of people you know, and who knows, perhaps you might come on air to share your own story!

The program is designed to close whatever gap there might be between you and Legacy. If it is getting harder to get around, if you find that you are losing contact with people around you, then we encourage you to tune in. Or perhaps you just want to share the music and experiences of those with whom you have much in common; the Legacy Hour on Mondays at 3:00pm on 101.5 FM, Radio Adelaide, is a must for you.

Legacy wishes Co-ordinator, Rosey Clare and our two teams of The Legacy Hour producers best wishes for the launch and debut show of the Legacy Hour on 5 March at 3:00pm.

A Message from the President

Dear Ladies,

Happy New Year to you all. I trust you all enjoyed Christmas with loved ones and that the quieter time provided the chance for some rest and contemplation. Hopefully you have made New Year resolutions that you can achieve.

My wife Heather, and I stayed at home for Christmas this year and enjoyed catching up with family and friends. It is a good time to connect with friends some of whom we see only annually. We thought of you all and hoped that you were enjoying the season in your own ways.

I am pleased to report that I am back in good health, and was in time to enjoy Christmas. Thanks to those who wished me well. I am looking forward to visits this year to meet our Country ladies. The first will be to Kadina in February and there will be a steady progression through the year. There is also a fairly full calendar of events in Adelaide where I will represent Legacy and our interests to other organisations all of which take a keen interest in your activities.

I encourage you to tune into Legacy Hour when it starts broadcasting this year. Details are in the Newsletter. Also, I encourage you to stay in touch with one another, by phone and visit. There are many who would appreciate a call or visit from another just to keep in touch.

Finally, don't forget the threat of fires if you live in a fire prone area. Refresh your plans and make sure you share them with family and neighbours. Summer has been fairly mild so far but it has a while to go yet. Until next time, I wish you all well and look forward to meeting you during the year.

Yours in Legacy

Bob Willis
President

MRS SIMS 100TH BIRTHDAY

Living at home and going out at least twice a week to Council activities are Evelyn Sims' recipe for attaining her 100th birthday on 4 December 2011. Evelyn had a wonderful garden party supported by her very close and caring family and friends to which Legatees Meredith Wyles and Pam Judge, representing Legacy, were invited.

Mrs Sims received congratulatory messages from Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth, the Governor General, the Governor of SA, Prime Minister, Leader of the Opposition, and Mr Steve Georganis member for Hindmarsh as well as the President of Legacy, Mr R Willis. Legacy Adelaide congratulates Evelyn Sims on achieving this wonderful milestone.

GREAT THINGS TO COME

2012 promises to be a year of great things to come.

The first broadcast of the Legacy Radio Hour on 101.5 FM will take place on Monday March 5 at 3:00pm. We all wish our two teams of radio producers/presenters who have been undergoing training at Radio Adelaide lots of luck as they embark on a very exciting project. These women are all Legacy Widows and are bursting with ideas for the weekly radio program. It's an Australian first, and Legacy Clubs in other states are watching with enormous interest. With funding from the SA Government, we have appointed Rosey Clare (once a Legacy youth) to help co-ordinate the project. Good luck to everyone involved!

The Victor Harbor house has come on stream and bookings have been taken well into 2012. Along with the Goolwa cottage, we are thrilled that Legacy Widows have access to very affordable holiday accommodation. A change is as good as a holiday, and what a great place to have a break!

Legacy's Phone a Friend program is up and running, and we hope that Ladies in the southern suburbs especially, with some time to spare, might be able to make a few social phone calls to other Legacy Widows. You don't have to visit, or organise any special activities. We only ask that you make a few phone calls to others whom we know would appreciate a social chat from time to time. Please ring Karyn Webb, Alison James or Rebecca Watcol on 8231 9812 for more information.

On behalf of the staff at Legacy I wish everyone a vibrant and joyful 2012. And of course, if you need assistance of any kind please call us on 8231 9812.

Rainer Jozepe
Chief Executive Officer

LEGACY 2012 CALENDAR

Enclosed with this edition of the Newsletter is the Legacy 2012 Calendar.

The Calendar has the Legacy House telephone numbers, emergency telephone numbers and space for you to write in other numbers that are important to you.

VIP HOME SERVICES AND LEGACY JOIN FORCES

In a unique partnership, the national home maintenance service provider, VIP, and Legacy have joined to help each other's special brand of community service.

VIP, who provide Home, Window & Carpet Cleaning as well as Lawns & Gardens Maintenance, have offered to support Legacy Widows in metropolitan Adelaide with Lawns & Gardens support, while we know that those who support Legacy are in turn supported by everyone in the community.

"We know that some of our ladies are doing it really tough, and although free, regular garden maintenance for each and every widow in Legacy will not be possible, through VIP we will now be able to send a contractor around to do emergency garden maintenance", said Legacy CEO, Rainer Jozepe.

Where a Legatee, or Committee becomes aware of the particular special difficulties of a widow, Legacy will assist with garden maintenance support through this special arrangement with VIP Home Services. Also, VIP has offered to maintain the gardens at Legacy's Goolwa cottage as well as the newer property at Victor Harbor.

A highly ethical and community focused organisation, all VIP Franchisees are Police checked before gaining VIP Home Services accreditation.

"We are grateful to VIP Home Services for their support and encourage all Widows and Legatees in good circumstances to use VIP for their own garden maintenance needs" said Rainer Jozepe.

Daily Phone-Outs to Widows

It probably isn't known that Monday to Friday, 48 weeks a year, Legatees make telephone contact with 30 Widows a day living in metropolitan Adelaide. These women, who do not have an 'allocated Legatee', are generally in good shape, and in almost all cases it's beautiful for Widows and Legatee just to have a cheerful chat. However, some Legatees do discover in the course of their phone call that all is not as good as it could be for a person and refer the Widow on to Legacy staff for further follow up.

Through the Daily Phone-Out Program around 50 Duty Legatees make a total of 7,200 phone calls a year which now means Adelaide Legacy can maintain contact with an individual Widow every 9 months. With these phone calls, and the bi-monthly Widows' Newsletter, as well as Widows' Clubs & Social Groups (for those who attend), there are numerous opportunities for Legacy and Legacy Widows to maintain friendships and contact.

See below for profiles of some of these cheerful and helpful Duty Legatees. Perhaps one of them might ring you one day....

Legatee Mark Keynes

Why did you join Legacy?

I joined Legacy because I was a soldier for 27 years and in that time a number of people I knew were either killed or died during their service. Legacy was there to help look after their partners and children. I also have several friends whose fathers were killed in Vietnam and Legacy was a big part of their life as they grew up.

What do you most enjoy in your role?
Being of help to others.

What do you see as your role as a Duty Legatee in the Daily Phone-Out program?
To be a person our widows can relate to.

Is there a common theme that you identify coming from your chats with Widows?
I am constantly amazed at how stoic so many widows are. They all say how much they appreciate what Legacy does. Most widows I have spoken to say they are well looked after by their children, which is very comforting to hear.

- My favourite movie is almost any movie with Anthony Hopkins in it.
- I don't really have a favourite singer or musician as such but my greatest enjoyment is listening to my wife play the piano.
- In sport I always support the underdog but don't have a favourite sport or team as such.

Legatee Helen Adamson

Why did you join Legacy?

Legacy was very helpful when my husband died, and I thoroughly enjoy being President of the Marion Widows Club.

What do you most enjoy in your role?

In a way, I have already been helping Legacy Widows, but now, I will also be doing it through the auspices of being a Legatee

What do you see as your role as Duty Legatee in the Daily Phone-Out program?

To connect with the widows in a manner that they are comfortable talking to the Legatee and able to discuss their positives and problems, and just to have a good chat.

Is there a common theme that you can identify coming from your chats with Widows?

There seems to be those short calls where the widow is alright and doesn't really need any assistance at the time, there are some who love a chat who are delightful to talk with and there are also those ladies who are a bit unsure of who you are or why you are calling.

- My favourite movie is 'Lord of the Rings'
- When it comes to music I enjoy Empire of the Sun and Pink
- Sporting teams - I grew up in St Morris, which is Norwood country. When I joined the army I decided to take the red and blue with me and depending on which state I was posted to, it was either AFL or League I would support that team. My husband did the same.

Daily Phone-Outs to Widows

Legatee Di Fairhead

Why did you join Legacy?

When I retired after nearly 40 years working as a physiotherapist, a friend asked if I would be interested in becoming a Legatee. I thought maybe it was possible my past experiences may be of value, that of "A year working as physio in the 1st Aust Fd Hosp in Vietnam.... marrying an Army Officer and moving 9 times in the next 15 years...the highs and lows of family life....all the time loving my physio work, latterly rehab with older people."

What do you most enjoy in your role?

I really enjoy sitting down having a cuppa with my widows. They are such a strong group with many tales to tell and very independent. If I am allowed to do something to physically help them, I am even happier.

What do you see as your role as a Duty Legatee in the Daily Phone-Out program?

To make friendly contact to find out how they are managing physically, socially, financially. If they are having problems and family support is unable to help or they have no family to support them, I would refer them to Legacy Welfare.

Is there a common theme that you identify coming from your chats with Widows?

Those widows who have diminished mobility and/or loss of drivers licence are the ones who are sometimes lonely and unhappy. Many widows have wonderful support from family, but some have distant family, very few on my lists have had no family support.

- My favourite movie is 'Indochine'
- Music depends on the mood either something like Roberta Flack or Placido Domingo.
- I play tennis every Friday morning with a group of tennis players, happily growing slower and older together on the court - the "All Weather(ed) Girls Tennis Club". Resting between sets, we solve the problems of the world and each other's dilemmas!

Legatee Andy Dewar

Why did you join Legacy?

Two of my friends whom I served with, are long term Legatees in other states. Over the years at reunions etc, they talked about their roles as Legatees and the support they receive from Legacy helping widows and youth, so I decided when the time was right that I could do that and make a contribution also.

What do you most enjoy in your role?

Legacy to me is a special organisation and I am proud to be part of it. I enjoy being part of the Henley and Grange Widows club and the camaraderie there. I also enjoy working with the widows I've been allocated in the area, along with a young family. I've been a Legatee for 18 months and I do enjoy the support I've had from Legacy in helping me to support my widows and youth.

What do you see as your role as a Duty Legatee in the Daily Phone-Out program?

To help as required the various Widows Clubs and groups that come and go through the ground floor Auditorium, to be a good listener on the phone and determine if the widow needs help even though the widow may not request it.

Is there a common theme that you identify coming from your chats with Widows?

All the widows I've spoken to tell me they love receiving the newsletter. Most of the widows I speak to do have strong family support, and they say it is good to know that Legacy is there should they need to call. The courtesy call is well received, and to have a chat means a lot also.

- My favourite movie is 'Outlaw Josie Wells' starring Clint Eastwood
- Music - well it would have to be Abba
- My favourite sport is Cricket when we are winning. I play golf several times a week.

Recipe Corner

Australia Day has just passed us by and we hope you were able to celebrate with a barbecue or picnic, making the most of our great outdoors.

This version of an old favourite might be a tasty treat for you to try on family and friends.

Ingredients (Serves 8)

- ¾ cup of caster sugar
- 4 eggwhites
- ½ cup flaked almonds
- 300ml thickened cream
- 1 tablespoon icing sugar mixture
- 400g tub sliced peaches in juice, drained, chopped
- 2 passionfruit, halved
- Icing sugar, to serve

Method:

1. Preheat oven to 180°C/160°C fan-forced. Grease a 25cm x 30cm Swiss roll pan. Line with baking paper, allowing a 2cm overhang on all sides. Place a second sheet of baking paper on a flat surface. Sprinkle with 1 tablespoon caster sugar.
2. Using an electric mixer, beat eggwhites until stiff peaks form. Add remaining caster sugar. Beat for 10 minutes or until sugar has dissolved. Spread mixture over prepared pan. Smooth top. Sprinkle with almonds. Bake for 10 minutes or until top just starts to brown.
3. Meanwhile, using an electric mixer, beat cream and icing sugar until stiff peaks form. Pat peaches dry with paper towel.
4. Turn meringue onto prepared baking paper. Remove lining paper. Cool for 3 minutes. Spread with cream mixture. Top with peaches and passionfruit pulp. Roll up meringue from one long end to enclose filling. Place on a plate and refrigerate for 1 hour. Serve dusted with icing sugar

Pavlova roll is best made on day of serving.

CORRECTION

In last months newsletter, we incorrectly stated that Plympton Legacy Widows' Club meeting is on the third Monday of the month at 12:00pm. Whilst the day was correct, the time should have been listed as 11:30am. We apologise for any inconvenience this may have caused.

EDITHBURGH PRIMARY HONORS REMEMBRANCE DAY

Following Remembrance Day, we received this wonderful letter from the children of Edithburgh Primary - Ed

Dear Mark Taylor, Badge Appeal,

Edithburgh Primary is a small school of fifty students situated on Southern Yorke Peninsula.

As part of our tribute to the memory of those involved in conflicts around the world, my class (currently fifteen Year 3s and 4s) make their own badges and sell them prior to and on Remembrance Day.

We placed them in specially designed containers around Edithburgh and Coobowie to be sold to the general public.

As part of our learning about Remembrance Day, we:

- put up a display at school to remind people about Remembrance Day.
- made and laminated 2011 Remembrance Crosses which we placed on the graves of members of the armed forces in our local cemetery.
- made our own badges to wear and to sell.
- made up boxes for our badges which we placed in different locations.
- made a floral tribute in the shape of a cross, by gluing red roses onto a cardboard cut out.
- went to Bublacowie to attend the Remembrance Day service and placed our floral tribute at the memorial.
- listened to 'I was only 19' and "Two little boys" and watched footage which accompanied the songs.

Please find a cheque enclosed for $166.40 - proceeds from the sale of our badges.

Yours sincerely,

Kath Dawes
(on behalf of the 3/4 class)

A big thanks to all involved from Legacy - Ed

VICTOR HARBOR HOLIDAY HOUSE – OPENING FEBRUARY 2012!

This lovely home is centrally located on Victoria Street and will be available from 6th February 2012. The three bedroom house can accommodate 4-6 people. This house is more suited to those ladies and their families, who are quite mobile as there are several steps both at the back and front of the house. The shower is situated over a low bath, which means guests will need to step over the side of the bath in order to gain access to the shower.

Rates: $50 per week Legacy Widows,
$100 per week for non Legacy Adults.

Some bookings remain for 2012.

WELCOME ROSEMARY CLARE - 'LEGACY HOUR' COORDINATOR

My affiliation with Legacy dates back more than 10 years, when at age 13 I lost my father (a WWII) veteran to cancer. Initially Legacy provided financial and emotional support to my mother and I during this difficult time. We especially appreciated this support as we lived in a rural setting on Kangaroo Island. In the years following my father's death, Legacy provided me with many wonderful opportunities to meet people who had experienced similar unfortunate circumstances. I attended a variety of camps and trips with my fondest memory being of the Anzac Day memorial service in Canberra.

Legacy has supported my education and I am currently studying a Masters Degree in Communication. At 25 years of age, I certainly feel that the experiences and skills I have acquired (largely as a result of the opportunities made available by Legacy) have and will continue to serve me well personally and professionally. I feel so honoured to be taking on the role of Legacy Hour Coordinator and to be playing such an important part in this exciting new initiative.

(We are very pleased to welcome Rosemary (Rosey) to our staff team at Legacy House and we look forward to the success of the Legacy Hour program - Ed.)

Youth News

It's a very busy time of year for our families with children and young people. The hustle and bustle of the end of the school year has come and gone. The youth committee are currently reviewing the yearly updates we receive on each child which helps us plan for the educational and other developmental needs of our young people.

Congratulations go to those older members of our youth who have completed high school studies, TAFE or University Studies and those who have gained entry to study programs for 2012. We are proud to support their learning and look forward to another great year of success.

Preparation for camp has kept the Welfare Staff very busy and we were thrilled this year to be sending 11 of our young people on camp to either Bussleton (WA) or the Queensland Sunshine Coast. A meet and greet lunch was held at Legacy House for the young people heading to Brisbane which gave both the young people and the mums the opportunity to get to know each other a little before the '5 am' start at the airport. It was great that Legatees Ian Wittenberg and Andy Dewar were also able to join the party.

We look forward to sharing their adventures with you in the next newsletter.

Tess Harmer (8yrs) drew this great picture at the Lunch.
